The Whiteface Lodge, a Lake Placid Resort, was envisioned as a return to the grandeur of the "Great Camps" of the Adirondacks with the luxury amenities of today's finest resorts and private residence clubs. Completed in June 2005, it is the vision of a former Olympian and developer who used his decades of building experience to create one of the grandest properties in the region. Much of the timber for this Lake Placid Resort was hand-milled on site and accents such as handcrafted Adirondack furnishings may be found throughout, creating a wonderfully authentic ambiance.

Whether you seek the quiet comfort of a restful weekend in the Adirondack wilderness of upstate New York or the exhilarating activities that have made Lake Placid such a beloved family getaway, The Whiteface Lodge Resort & Spa offers an impressive range of ways in which to indulge and uncompromising service in arranging every detail of your stay.
