

Acoustic Entertainment

Complimentary Friday and Saturday nights in Kanu Lounge

Featured Artists

Vinnie Leddick is our Resident Entertainer for the Winter Months. He begins the Second week in November. Vinnie Leddick is an entertainer and songwriter from the Adirondacks who has been playing music professionally since he was fourteen.

Vinnie has received accolades from many well-known artists in the music business such as Dave Mathews, Jakob Dylan, Dispatch, Phish and celebrity personalities such as Paul Newman, Samantha Brown, Shawn Ryan and many others

Russell B. Bailey is a longtime North Country guitarist, singer and songwriter. Along with his original music, Bailey covers songs by Elmore James, Bo Diddly and others. He utilizes a variety of acoustic and electric guitars, and Bailey is usually accompanied by Franz Pope on upright base.

Ronnie Morris is a musical story teller. He has an amazing play list that ranges from Crosby, Stills, and Nash, Beatles, Neil Young, and even a little Jimmy Buffet. Ronnie has a light hearted style, that draws people in to interact with the music.

Dr. Joe Dockery is quite active in the local music scene, both as a promoter and performer. He currently sings and plays percussion and some guitar in the eclectic band, Rhythm Road.

Joe Defelice brings warmth to the room with music of the last 20 years, everything from James Taylor to Oasis to the Black Keys including some of his own music. Joe has a relaxed style that makes the cares of the day melt away.

Music begins at 7:30.
Artists scheduled to perform, and special events, will be updated on Facebook.

